

ACRH Graduate and Artist Susanna Pantas

Back in 1998, AC Reynolds High School senior Susanna Pantas dreamed of becoming an artist like her father, Lee James Pantas of Fairview. During her homecoming court interview that year, Susanna described her main interests as art and animals, and wished that one day she would be able to merge those two interests into a career. Susanna is now a painter with a fanciful body of artwork and has recently launched a website, SusannaPantas.com, to share her vision. Also find her blogging about painting, her creative process, and inspirations at susannapantas.blogspot.com. ❖

